Green band to jam for charity at carnival

A BAND which uses recycled items as musical instruments will perform at St Nicholas Home Penang's 86th anniversary carnival.

Its executive director Daniel Soon said the performance by the Recycle Band would be among the highlights of the carnival which would be held from 10am to 3pm on Nov 3 at the home's premises in Bagan Jermal Road.

"There will also be a jumble sale as well as stalls selling food and drinks," he told a press conference.

He invited the public to donate items for the jumble sale and hawkers to set up the food and drinks stalls.

"There will also be educational game stalls," Soon said.

He said the home hoped to raise RM100, 000 from the carnival.

Coupons for the carnival priced at RM20 per booklet can now be bought at the home. For further information, call 04-2290800 or visit www.snh.org.my.
